

SRI SATHYA SAI™

Divine Visit to East Africa

This Day ... That Year

June 30 to July 14, 1968

Day 7

Spontaneous flow of His love

July 06, 1968

About a hundred lawyers, doctors, Rotarians, and headmasters sought His audience. Swami arrived, pushed aside the chair set for Him, sat on the floor with a smile, and said, "Come on! Ask Me any question."

Swami spoke about the types of miracles thus. “There are two types of happenings, which you refer to as ‘miracles’. One type goes against nature and her laws. They are the result of arduous, ascetic, yogic practices and are not beneficial to oneself or others. The other is the spontaneous manifestation of divine power and they lead men towards the divine.”

When asked for a message to carry in their hearts, Swami lovingly said, “Work is Worship, Duty is God, have this as the prime motive in all that you do.”

Later, He moved among the crowd creating portraits of Christ in enamel and gold for Christians; He gave a portrait of Guru Nanak to a Sikh gentleman. The group was blessed with a photo with Bhagawan.

It was all spontaneous, smooth, silent, and divine, suffused with love
and benediction.

General Idi Amin visited Swami at C.G. Patel's house.

The Journey Continues ...

Stay Tuned

